

Creek County Receives Holiday Mural Donation from Citizen Group

A local group led by Sapulpa's Joni Rogers-Kante (SeneGence) are collaborating to donate a colorful art mural to the beloved residents of Creek County. The Mathesons (Matheson Law Firm) donated a wall of their building, CCR Construction Company repaired and prepped it, popular artist Scott Taylor of Colorpop Art Lab is painting it and The Kante Group is funding the project.

Rogers-Kante was involved at the conception and provided the inspiration behind the gift of art. "I thought a mural bursting with color would lift our community's spirit during this challenging time, as well as reflect the features of life and history of our town."

The mural can be found on the side wall of the Matheson building at the corner of Main and Dewey. Mural is over 1300 sq. ft. and is expected to be completed by the end of January, 2021.

About SeneGence:

Founded in 1999 by Joni Rogers-Kante, SeneGence exploded into the marketplace with the launch of LipSense® color technology, and quickly rose in popularity as the creator of The Original Long-Lasting Liquid Lip Color®. Along with its premier product, SeneGence enabled a way for women to be independent and successful in business, regardless of age, background, or education. More than 20 years later, SeneGence has expanded its line of products that really work to include anti-aging skin care, long-lasting cosmetics, new men's line, and has thousands of Distributors in 17 countries across the globe. Even still, the commitment to empowering women has remained the same. SeneGence's nonprofit organization, The Make Sense Foundation®, regularly raises and contributes funds for women and children in need as part of the overall plan to give back to the global community.
