

Global Beauty Brand SeneGence® Opens New Office in Canada

On Saturday, February 15, SeneGence International hosted a Grand Opening Celebration of their Vancouver office building. The global network marketing company originally launched in Canada in 2001, and the new facility and distribution center will provide support for sales throughout the country.

Over 90 guests were welcomed by the SeneGence Executive Team of Joni Rogers-Kante, Founder & CEO; Ben Kante, Chief Strategy Officer; and Philippe Guerreau, President and enjoyed lite bites, mocktails, giveaways, a training session and a tour.

“SeneGence’s global expansion is bringing products that truly work and a career that really works to millions of women worldwide,” explains Joni Rogers-Kante. “The excitement was definitely in the air at our new Vancouver office and distribution center. It was wonderful to see many of our Canadian Distributors bring guests to the event to learn more about the company and opportunities that we provide to women.”
